DownloadThoughts and anecdotes, written and illustrated Menu Will Your Novel Be Read and Reviewed? Nothing beats the feeling of choosing to publish a book, and then promoting it to the public. However, you still have to go through the first step, which is choosing a publisher. This question pops up quite often: Will my book be read and reviewed? Here are some answers to this question: The better answer is (probably): You have to ask it yourself. You can only get a valid response if you push your creativity to the edge, and take yourself seriously. In order to get to the answers to this question you have to write a book that is thoughtful, provocative and reflects something which you are interested in, and – be aware of this – something that you believe in. It is, however, not necessary to write about things you don't believe in or don't know. Your book will not be read unless it is written by you
